PRICE WILL BE 50 OR 60 CENTS.

The People Called Baptists.

By GEO. W. McDANIEL, D.D.,

Pastor First Baptist Church, Richmond, Va.

"We have not read a book with greater interest for a long time. We could not but wish as we read each paragraph that every reader of the Record might have this book."—Editor Baptist Record, Mississippi.

"Here are combined the virtues of a great theme and the excellence of a great writer. Dr. McDaniel is not so much a historian as he is an advocate, but his work has been done in a scholarly and convincing way that is at the same time popular and interesting. The remarkably challenging work deserves an unusual sale and distribution. Some things are said about Baptists that everybody ought to know."—H. L. Winburn, D.D.

"This editor has not in many a day read a book that is more to his liking. The author gives us the very best type of doctrinal discussion. His statement of our doctrinal position and our attitude toward the union movement could hardly be improved upon. His arraignment of the United States government for its violation of the constitution and its disregard of religious liberty during the war is simply terrific. But the author does not rant. It is all in fine spirit. But he sets forth plainly and with great force and clearness the principles involved."—Editor Baptist Advance, Arkansas.

PRICE, $1.00 POSTPAID.
